SUBJ: DWD Policy 2005-1
Policy for Alternative Work Schedules

PURPOSE: To provide guidelines and procedures for the development of the Alternative Work Schedule within the Department of Workforce Development

RESCISSION: DWD Policy # 2003-14
DWD Communication #H95P-I214
DWD Communication #1999-07

CONTENT: In order to provide quality services to the Department of Workforce Development's customers, Alternative Work Schedules will be an option for the staff of the Department of Workforce Development.

ELIGIBILITY AND RESPONSIBILITY:

To participate in the Alternative Work Schedule program, employees must meet eligibility requirements and be responsible to maintain those requirements. If an event should occur that prevents the employee from meeting the eligibility requirements, the employee's participation may be discontinued. If participation is discontinued, the employee will return to working a ten-day work schedule during a two-week pay period at the start of the next pay period.

To be eligible for alternative work schedules, an employee must meet the following criteria:

- be a full-time state employee;
- not be on an original work test;
- not be on a work improvement plan;
- not have any negative rating(s) on performance appraisals (below standard, marginal, or unsatisfactory) during the preceding six (6) months;
- not have any disciplinary action(s) during the preceding six (6) months; and

The employee must submit the following:

- complete and submit an Alternative Work Schedule Request Form to the supervisor for review and approval;
- have approval from the supervisor and Deputy Commissioner/ Division Head before starting an alternative work schedule;
- adhere to the selected alternative work schedule stated on the request form;
- alter the alternative work schedule on “off” days that occur on official state holidays; the “off” day will be adjusted another day within the same week as the holiday;
- write “approved AWS” in the Comments Section on the Employee Attendance (A-4 form);
- submit a written request to his/her supervisor if he/she wishes to discontinue the selected alternative work schedule;
- post his/her schedule to communicate his/her working hours.

In the event of a transfer or promotion, the employee will need a new approved form from their new supervisor and Deputy Commissioner/Division Head.

PROCEDURES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

It is the manager’s or supervisor’s responsibility to develop and document a plan in which the office/division meets three (3) specific criteria: customer service, operational objectives and cost control (savings or revenue neutrality).

Customer Service

The Department of Workforce Development provides many services for a wide range of customers, both internal and external. To ensure our customers have the opportunity to utilize these services, alternative work schedules will allow the Department of Workforce Development to serve customers during alternative work hours. Hours would be extended to assist customers before 8:00 a.m. and after 4:30 p.m., or service hours can be developed to best serve our customers. However, within an alternative work schedule, overtime-eligible employees may work no more than seventy-five (75) hours during a pay period. The employee should work no less than thirty-five (35) hours in one week and no more than forty (40) hours in the second week in any pay period, unless pre-approved overtime has been authorized. The manager must ensure that the office/division maintains adequate staffing to provide quality customer service during work hours.

Operational Objectives

To establish an Alternative Work Schedule, each manager is required to consider operational issues internally, i.e., interactions between offices, telephone duties, computers, etc. Each manager is also responsible for communicating service hours to customers. Each Alternative Work Schedule plan should include staffing proposals and clearly defined supervisory responsibilities for employees working alternative work hours.

Cost Savings or Revenue Neutral

In order to apply this policy, the manager must ensure cost savings or revenue neutrality will result when implementing an Alternative Work Schedule.

Responsibilities

In addition to the three specific criteria, managers and supervisors must:

- verify the requesting employee's eligibility to participate in the Alternative Work Schedule program before approving any request (see requirements);
- when necessary, give preference for a selected schedule to the employee who has greater classification seniority (see definitions);
- determine if "off" days should be limited to Mondays only or Fridays only for employees within his/her scope of authority;
- submit a completed Alternative Work Schedule Request form to Human Resources for processing;
- ensure that an adequate number of the division's, office's, or unit's staff members are scheduled to work (either in the office or in the field) every day during affected pay periods;
- monitor the participating employee's work schedule to ensure that for overtime eligible staff seventy-five (75) hours are scheduled (and worked as scheduled) over a period of at least nine (9) work days during each pay period, the participating employee should work no less than thirty-five (35) hours in one week and no more than forty (40) hours in the other week in any pay period, unless pre-approved overtime has been authorized;
- monitor the participating employee's work schedule to ensure that for non-overtime eligible staff at least seventy-five (75) hours are scheduled (and worked as scheduled) over a period of at least nine (9) work days during each pay period and the participating employee should work no less than thirty-five (35) hours in one week and no more than forty (40) hours in the other week in any pay period, unless pre-approved overtime has been authorized;
- monitor the participating employee's work schedule to ensure that for overtime eligible staff seventy-five (75) hours are scheduled (and worked as scheduled) over a period of at least a four (4) day work week during each pay period, and that no more than thirty-seven and one half (37.5) hours are scheduled or worked during any one work week;
- monitor the participating employee's work schedule to ensure that for non-overtime eligible staff at least seventy-five (75) hours are scheduled (and worked as scheduled) over a period of at least four (4) day work weeks during each pay period, and that no more than thirty-seven and half (37.5) hours are scheduled or worked during any one work week;
- ensure that the participating employee adheres to the specific alternative work schedule he/she selected on the request form;
- ensure that the alternative work schedule is altered so that if the "off" day occurs on an official state holiday, the "off" day will be moved to another day in the same week, where as weekly totals should still match the chosen schedule;
- ensure that the words "approved AWS" appear in the Comments Section on the participating employee's Employee Attendance Reports (A-4 forms);
- ensure that the participating employee codes the hours worked each day on the Employee Attendance Report (A-4 form) in 15-minute increments (examples: 7.5 hours or 3.75 hours) rather than daily increments (examples: 1 day or ½ day);
- allow an employee to discontinue his/her selected alternative work schedule at any time upon receipt of his/her written request to do so and completion of the pay period;
- ensure that all schedules are posted to communicate employee's work hours;
- ensure that all position descriptions and performance appraisals for staff are up to date; and
- ensure that all required management training courses have been completed.

FIXED FLEXIBLE TIME

Standard Business Hours for the Department of Workforce Development are 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The standard work day consists of 7.5 hours with a one (1) hour lunch.

Employees may request to work a Fixed Flexible Time schedule to accommodate their individual need or preference. Fixed Flexible Time must be approved by the supervisor/manager and the Deputy Commissioner/Division Head for that division for the agency.

Any employee who requests to change his/her work hours and later finds it is a hardship may return to the official business hours by submitting a written request to his/her supervisor.

Due to the nature of the Department of Workforce Development's business, management reserves the right to adjust work schedules as necessary in order to serve its customers.
